St. Tammany Corporation Hosts First Ever NOEW in Your Neighborhood Event on the Northshore

St. Tammany Corporation, Through the STartUP Northshore Initiative, Continues to Invest in Supporting Northshore Entrepreneurs

MANDEVILLE, La – Today, Chris Masingill, CEO of St. Tammany Corporation, is pleased to announce Empowering Northshore Entrepreneurs, STartUP Northshore’s first ever NOEW in Your Neighborhood event on the Northshore. Hosted at Palmettos on the Bayou on Monday, March 27th, 2023, beginning at 4:30 p.m. the goal of the program is to bring together local entrepreneurs, startup innovators, influential thinkers, investors, and creative individuals with a passion for business for an evening celebrating entrepreneurship on the Northshore.

The evening’s program will feature a panel discussion on "Scaling your business from the Northshore" where expert entrepreneurs will share their journey and insights on what it takes to grow a successful business in the local ecosystem. Immediately following the panel, there will be a CEO roundtable session where attendees will have the chance to rotate tables and engage in meaningful conversations with some of the region’s most successful entrepreneurs. Through this curated programming, the Northshore’s emerging and existing small and high-growth businesses will have a unique opportunity to connect with local like-minded individuals, learn from their experiences, and gain valuable insights that they can apply to their own endeavors.

Empowering Northshore Entrepreneurs represents St. Tammany Corporation’s latest investment in building programs that cultivate local entrepreneurs on the Northshore by delivering first-class programming, networking opportunities, access to capital and mentorship from esteemed industry leaders, investors, and founders to the next wave of business leaders, at predominantly no cost to them. Following up on the partnership established with The Idea Village in August of 2022, the Northshore will play a specific role in the Gulf South’s premiere convening of entrepreneurship and innovation, New Orleans Entrepreneur Week. With open networking opportunities and technical assistance programming, this event is the next step in enhancing the entrepreneurial ecosystem on the Northshore and empowering local founders to create and grow dynamic, innovative businesses.

"Empowering Northshore Entrepreneurs is the Northshore’s first NOEW session hosted on the Northshore,” said Masingill. “This intentional and collaborative engagement with our regional partners provides an opportunity to harness the multifaceted opportunities that exist for creating unique, innovative, and thriving businesses of scale within the Northshore footprint.”

"This event under the New Orleans Entrepreneur Week banner is an opportunity to convene and deepen the Northshore-specific startup community while building the connective tissue of our regional innovation hub," said Jon Atkinson, CEO of The Idea Village. "We’re excited to welcome founders, innovators, investors, startup stakeholders and the local business community to be part of Startup Northshore and the growing momentum of the region.”

"We are thrilled to bring this event to our community and offer an opportunity for the innovators in our backyards to connect and learn from some of the most successful entrepreneurs in the region," said Cenzo Caronna, STartUP Northshore’s Entrepreneur in Residence and Program Manager. “I encourage all entrepreneurs from St. Tammany, Washington, and Tangipahoa Parishes, whether you’re experienced or aspiring, to join us for this unparalleled opportunity to connect with the region's top entrepreneurs, gain valuable insights, and take the next step in your own entrepreneurial journey.”
